

5 hours course

300 minutes Approx.

Total time required:

Recommended Model Course

4 hours course

- Total time required: 240 minutes Approx
- •17,600 ven

Per person for 4 persons

4,400 yen

Per person for 4 persons

22,000 yen

5,500 yen

6.5 hours course

- Total time required: 390 minutes Approx.
- •28,600 ven

Per person for 4 persons 7,150 yen

Ena Station

10 min.

5 min.

Oi Dam (20 min.)

Constructed by Momosuke Fukuzawa in 1924, it was Japan's first dam for power generation.

Ena Gorge

The view from high above is spectacular, with huge and oddly shaped rocks lining both banks of the Kiso River.

Ena Gorge Walking & Sightseeing Boa

5 min.

Visitors can enjoy the canyon, which changes its colors according to the season, from the water on a sightseeing boat.

5 Gin no mori (90 min.)

5 min.

Ena Station

20 min.

20 min.

Stroll in Iwamura

Visitors can enjoy the old atmosphere of the streets and eating in the old houses with their Masugata, Namako kabe, and old houses

wamura Castle Ruins

It is a fortified mountain castle that skillfully utilizes the topography, one of the three great mountain fortresses in Japan.

Nihon Taishomura • Akechi Castle Ruins

The area is dotted with buildings that give a sense of Taisho culture. You can also visit places related to Mitsuhide Akechi.

Senjojiki Park• Ochiai Fortress (20 min)

40 min.

5 min.

Ena Station

30分

Shimono Koshindo

50 min.

It is said to have been built in the early Kamakura period and is one of the three Koshin in Japan.

Takadaru Fall (40min.)

It is a powerful waterfall with a drop of approximately 20 meters that cascades down into an emerald green waterfall basin.

Fudo Fall (90min.)

40 min.

30 min.

The surrounding area is maintained as Fudo Park, a healing spot where visitors can enjoy a stroll.

Tsukechi Rest Stop (40min.)

40 min.

